

INFO FOR VISITORS

- Upon presenting a ticket for entry to the festival, all visitors shall receive an identification wrist band, which replaces the ticket, entitling them to entry to the site.
- Anyone who is unable to provide proof of their right to be on the pARTy ve FRANTIŠKÁNU site may not be admitted onto the premises and/or may be ejected from the premises.
- Visitors to pARTy ve FRANTIŠKÁNU are obliged to conduct themselves in a manner which does not endanger the health and/or safety of other persons and/or their property, as well as facilities located on the pARTy ve FRANTIŠKÁNU site while on the premises. Furthermore, their behaviour must not restrict, endanger or disturb other persons beyond the extent corresponding to circumstances arising from the course of the pARTy ve FRANTIŠKÁNU festival.
- It is forbidden to bring weapons, glass, tin cans or other dangerous subjects to the festival area.
- It is forbidden to take professional pictures (except personal digi-cams and mobiles) and the professional audio-video recording.
- The right to decide on the danger and/or unsuitability of individual items brought onto the pARTy ve FRANTIŠKÁNU festival site by a visitor is reserved by the Operator or persons authorised by the Operator, particularly senior security service employees (supervisors) and/or their superiors.
- The security service is allowed to do security checks at the entry of the area.
- It is not allowed to bring own food nor soft and hard drinks to the festival area.
- Dogs are not allowed in the festival area (except assistance dogs)
- Visitors to pARTy ve FRANTIŠKÁNU are further prohibited from:
 - a) climbing onto or entering any structures or equipment on the premises, particularly façades,
 - b) fences, walls, barriers, lighting equipment, trees, columns, roofs, banks, supporting structures, etc.
 - c) entering areas which are off limits to the public and which are signposted as such
 - d) arbitrarily moving or otherwise tampering with equipment and/or other gear located on the
 - e) premises
 - f) relieving themselves outside the toilets or contaminating the premises in any other manner
 - g) distributing or placing any kind of promotional or advertising materials on the festival site
 - h) without written permission from the Organiser!
- Visitors take part in the festival exclusively at their own risk, are liable for any damages which they may cause, and acknowledge the fact that if they remove their identification wrist bands, the contract shall be rendered invalid and they shall not be entitled to demand entry to the festival.